

Koren Publications and The Indigo Festival Join Forces!

Koren Publications, the leader in Chiropractic educational resources, has teamed up with The Indigo Festival to ensure success beyond imagination!

+

=

Practice Success!

Koren Publications is now providing all Indigo Festival hosts the “Indigo Education Kit”, including materials to educate referral sources at event spinal screenings, in event goody bags, at your welcome table, and when your new practice members come to your office!

This powerful union is guaranteed to make your event a success from start to finish. Thanks to Koren Publications, your Indigo Festival guests and participants will walk away from your event with a clear understanding of the power of chiropractic and how you can serve them!

For more information about Koren Publications, and how they are educating the families of our Chiropractic communities, visit their website at www.korenpublications.com